THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

125. The Seat of Government of the Commonwealth shall be determined by the Parliament, and shall be within territory which shall have been granted to or acquired by the Commonwealth, and shall be vested in and belong to the Commonwealth, and shall be in the State of New South Wales, and be distant not less than one hundred miles from Sydney.

Such territory shall contain an area of not less than one hundred square miles, and such portion thereof as shall consist of Crown lands shall be granted to the Commonwealth without any payment therefor.

The Parliament shall sit at Melbourne until it meet at the Seat of Government.

(Section 125 of the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act, 63 and 64 Victoria, Chapter 12.)

Transfer of the Australian Capital Territory to the Commonwealth.—On 18th October, 1909, the Commonwealth and the State of New South Wales entered into an agreement for the surrender to and acceptance by the Commonwealth of an area of 911 square miles as the Seat of Government of the Commonwealth. In December, 1909, Acts were passed by the Commonwealth and New South Wales Parliaments approving the agreement, and on 5th December, 1910, a proclamation was issued vesting the Territory in the Commonwealth on and from 1st January, 1911. By the Jervis Bay Territory Acceptance Act 1915, an area of 28 square miles at Jervis Bay, surrendered by New South Wales according to an agreement made in 1913, was accepted by the Commonwealth, and was transferred as from 4th September, 1915.

(a) In respect of which a separate Householder's Schedule was furnished. (b) Prior to 1961 single self-contained dwellings attached to or situated above offices, shops, etc., were classified as private houses irrespective of the description stated in the Householder's Schedule. In 1961 such dwellings, if described as self-contained flats, were classified as flats. (c) Includes " caretakers' quarters " which in 1961 were classified as private dwellings.

NOTE

Occupied Dwelling.—An occupied dwelling is any habitation occupied by a household group living together as a domestic unit, whether comprising the whole or only part of a building. The term has therefore a very wide reference and includes, in addition to houses and flats, a great variety of " dwellings " ranging from a single-roomed shack to a multi-roomed hotel or institution. Occupied dwellings are classified into " private " and " other than private " dwellings.

Private Dwelling.—Private dwellings are further classified into the following four categories:—

Private House.—Private Houses include houses, sheds, huts, garages, etc., used for dwelling purposes, and shared private houses for which only one Householder's Schedule was received.

Share of Private House.—A Share of a Private House is a portion of a shared private house which is occupied separately and for which portion a separate Householder's Schedule was received.

Flat.—A Flat is part of a house or other building which can be completely closed off and which has its own cooking and bathing facilities.

Other Private Dwelling.—These include private dwellings such as rooms, apartments, etc., which are parts of buildings but are not self-contained units.

Other than Private Dwelling.—These include Hotels; Motels; Boarding Houses, Lodging Houses and Hostels; Educational, Religious and Charitable Institutions; Hospitals; Defence and Penal Establishments; Police and Fire Stations; Clubs; Staff Barracks and Quarters, etc.

(a) Includes Sheds, Huts, etc. (b) This information was furnished by occupants of dwellings at 30th June, 1961. For a number of reasons the figures shown on this line do not agree with the number of dwellings by class recorded at the Census of 30th June, 1954, e.g. demolitions, conversions from one class of dwelling to another and errors of memory regarding date of building. Also the figures are not precisely comparable with 1954 data because of changes in classification of dwellings adopted at the 1961 Census, as indicated in Table 15. (c) After 30th June, 1954, but year not stated.

(a) Figures relate to persons actually working on the job of contractors who undertake the erection of new buildings and government instrumentalities which erect new buildings on their own account. They include persons actually engaged on alterations, additions, repairs and maintenance when these jobs are undertaken by such contractors and instrumentalities. The figures include working principals and their employees, men working as or for sub-contractors, and men temporarily laid off on account of weather. They exclude persons working on owner-built houses and, before 1962, also persons working on private buildings (other than houses) which are erected without the services of a contractor responsible for the whole job. (b) Not available.
